Hunting in Australia

Hunting in Australia is a special adventure even for experienced and well-traveled hunters. Besides Water Buffalo, Banteng and Wild Boar can also be hunted. When stalking one does not only view game, but also keeps on getting into new and fascinating territories.

Our partner

Our partner Australian Buffalo Hunters is a specialist for Buffalo hunts. Hunt in the best and remotest hunting areas in Arnhem Land and experience the untouched nature and wilderness of Australia.

Accommodation

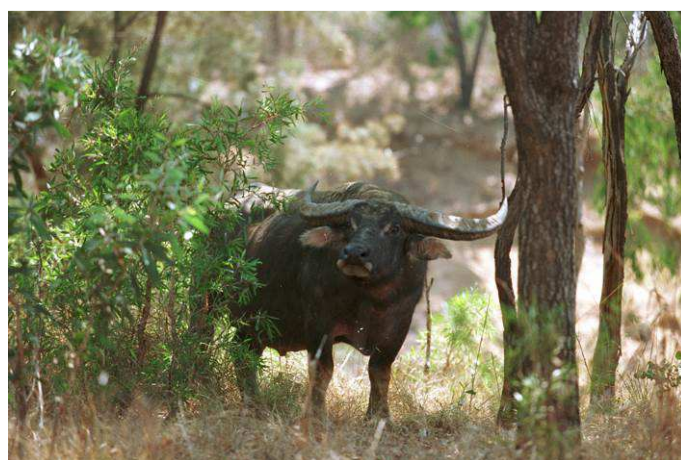

Accommodation is in comfortable tented camps close to the hunting grounds. After an exhausting hunting day you can relax your mind by the campfire with a drink in your hand.

Recommended Equipment:

Footwear:

2 pairs of comfortable lightweight hiking boots or trekking shoes. "You need to be removed in advance and cozy". Since the temperature is hot and uneven cistics are often a problem and make the execution of hunting painful.
Boots should be an ankle support and breathability.
NOTE - high leather boots are not suitable for hot weather.

Clothes:

We recommend light khaki or green cotton clothing for the hot climate.
Short sleeve shirts and shorts
Some hunters prefer thin long sleeve shirts and long pants
Camouflage is a big advantage

Example 7-10 days list:

- 7x Shirts
- 5x long / shorts / n
- 7x underwear, socks 7x
- Pajamas
- thin jacket
- Sweater
- big hat
- 2x pair of boots for hunting / 1x pair of sneakers or sandals for the camp
- Toiletries (razor), sewing kit
- Sunscreens
- Insect repellent, insect pen

Personal medications
Small first aid kit
Backpack
Water bottle
Flashlight, extra batteries
Hunting Knife
Binoculars
Sunglasses, spare glasses
Comfortable On arrival, casual clothes
