GENERAL TRAVEL INFORMATION

CURRENCY

1 Canadian dollar (CAD) = 100 cents

TIME DIFFERENCE

Multiple time zones

The difference ranges from CET -9h (West Coast) to CET -5h (East Coast)

Newfoundland Standard Time (NST) CET -4.5h (St. John)

Atlantic Standard Time (AST) CET -5h (Halifax)

Eastern Standard Time (EST) CET -6h (Toronto, Montreal)

Central Standard Time (CST) CET -7h (Winnipeg, Regina)

Mountain Standard Time (MST) CET -8h (Edmonton, Calgary)

Pacific Standard Time (PST) CET -9h (Vancouver)

Canadian Summer Time (standard time plus one hour) applies from the second Sunday in March to the first Sunday in November.

Saskatchewan (Regina) is the only province in Canada that does not have daylight saving time.

CLIMATE

There are large differences because of the size of the country. There is a humid Pacific climate on the west coast, a dry continental climate in the Prairie Provinces and an Atlantic climate influenced by the Gulf Stream in the east. The temperate climate zone is relatively narrow, and the arctic climate extends into the inhabited areas. Average temperatures range from -20°C to +25°C, while extreme temperatures range from -40°C to +40°C. In the cold season, you need appropriate equipment.

ELECTRICITY

110/120 Volt alternating current, flat plug, adapter required

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Please note the entry rules for each country. You can obtain this information from the relevant consulate. If you are a visa, please note that you are responsible for obtaining the visa yourself. Please visit the website of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for more information on entering Canada with a firearm, including the necessary forms, etc. at: <http://www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/cfp-pcaf/information/visit/index-eng.htm>

HEALTH

Vaccinations

Please note the vaccination requirements for each country. This information is provided by the relevant institute of tropical medicine. If vaccinations are required, please note that you are personally responsible for complying with the rules. No vaccinations are required on entry, except when entering via an infected area (smallpox).

INSURANCE

You are strongly advised to take out travel insurance for illness and ambulance services (there are extremely high hospital costs as well as long waiting periods for treatment in Canada).

HUNTING IN NORTH & SOUTH BRITISH-COLUMBIA

The starting points of the hunts are Whitehorse and Kelowna, which can be reached by major airlines. Meet and greet at the Airport or Hotel with our partner. We are happy to reserve your hotel for accommodation on arrival. Transfer to the camps is done with boats, seaplane or car.

For our Partner it is very important that he offer you comfortable accommodation. Accommodation is either in cabins or depending on the season and hunted species in tents.

At the end of the season, our partner will ship the trophies to you or to the taxidermist. There is also the possibility to prepare the trophies locally in Canada.

NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

HUNTING AREA

The hunting ground in northern British Columbia is located 2 hours from Whitehorse. The only access is via seaplane or boat. Glaciers have shaped the striking coastal mountains. The rough country with numerous lakes and streams offer a dreamlike atmosphere for hunting. We offer hunts for Mountain Goat, Canadian Moose, Stone Sheep, Mountain Caribou, Black Bear and Wolf.

HUNT

The hunting season in northern areas starts with the spring hunting of Black Bears. During this time, there is a possibility to hunt Wolves. The beginning of the hunt depends on the melting of snow. Experience has shown that at the end of May, and beginning of June the lake can be traveled by boat. From August 1st, Mountain Goat and Stone Sheep can be hunted. On August 15th, hunts start on Moose and Caribou. Except Moose, all other hunting seasons closed on October 15th.

Depending on the type of hunted species, the hunt takes 8 or 12 days. In general, the hunts are hunt guidance 1:1. Besides boats, ATV's are also used for transportation.

ACCOMMODATION

Most of the hunts take place from cabins or partially heated tents. When hunting Mountain Goats and Stone

Sheep it is possible that you will be accommodated in a spike camp for several nights.

SOUTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

HUNTING AREA

The southern hunting area is located in the Oaknagan Valley; it is about an hour's flight east of Vancouver in southern Canada. The region is well known for vineyards and offers excellent Puma and Wapiti trophies. A special feature is the hunt for Shiraz Moose, which occurs in addition to the Canadian Moose in British Columbia. The hunting area is easily accessible by forest roads and offers the hunter the best conditions. We offer hunts for puma, wapiti, Shiraz moose, black bear.

HUNTING

From beginning of May, there is the possibility to hunt for Black. The hunting of Wapiti starts on September 10th and takes place mainly during the rut. The hunting season of Shiraz Moose starts on October 1st and ends on November 30th. Depending on snow conditions, using snowmobiles is possible.

Puma can be hunted from mid-November. The hunt takes place with dogs – they search for fresh tracks made by Puma.

As in the northern hunting grounds, the duration of hunting is 8 and 12 hunting days. In general, the hunts are guided 1:1.

ACCOMMODATION

The hunts are done mostly from cabins.
