Zambeze Delta

Hunting in Mozambique

Mozambique is located in southern Africa. Here you can experience untouched, pristine wilderness. One of the best hunting destinations worldwide awaits you:

You can hunt in regions, in which trophy hunting has not been conducted for 16 years and consequently there are high quality trophies!

Hunting ground Coutada XI

The hunting ground of our Partner, Zambeze Delta Safaris, belongs to the Marromeu Complex and is located in central Mozambique.

It adjoins the mighty Zambezi River and covers an area of approximately 200,000 ha.

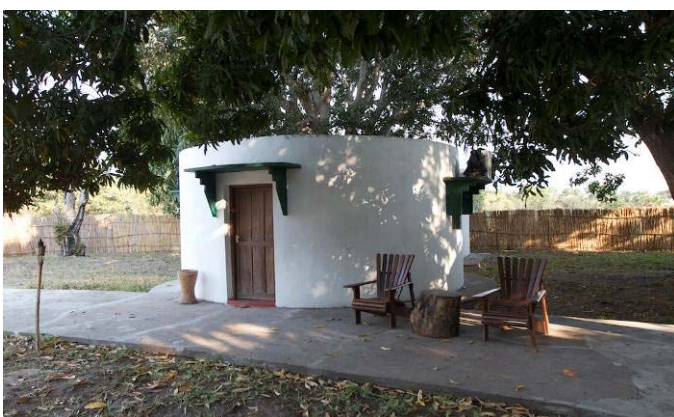

Hunting season Hunting season in Mozambique is from 1st April to 30th November.

Mungari Camp: A traditional East African safari tented camp. There are 7 tents all with en-suite bathrooms, hot and cold running water. Each tent can accommodate 2 people.

Ngazi Camp: Originally, an old hunting camp in the days of Portuguese rule, our partner decided to renovate and renew this camp in 2007. Now it has 3 main bedrooms both with en-suite bathrooms and with hot and cold water.

Mungai Camp: Is a Fly-Camp and can accommodate 2 hunters

Palladium Pampa Hi-otan-green

The Pampa Hi in green. The classic is known as a cult shoe from the 80s. The upper canvas is since 1947 faithful companion of the pampas and finally also his trademark. On the side of the legs, there are two large cargo pockets. The left pocket has a zipper. The overall has a large hidden zipper on the chest. In addition, the overall has a drawstring at the bottom. The overall is unlined. Material: 55% cotton 45% polyester.

For example:

- Hunting Jacket
- Warm sweater or jumper
- Light weight rain gear
